

Spanish

A Level

Course Summary:

Studying A Level Spanish will enhance your use of the language in the productive skills of Writing and Speaking and the receptive skills of Listening and Reading, which will improve your ability to communicate with Spanish speakers from around the world. After studying Spanish at Barton Peveril you will have a broadened vocabulary, an excellent understanding of Spanish grammar and a wider understanding of Spanish cultures.

Assessment:

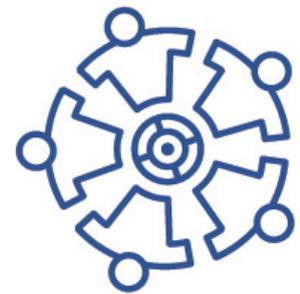

- Paper 1: Listening, Reading and Writing.
- Paper 2: Writing (based on the study of the play and film)
- Paper 3: A Speaking Exam.

Topics:

- > Aspects of Hispanic Society
- > Artistic Culture in the Hispanic world
- > Multiculturalism in Hispanic Society
- > Aspects of Political Life in the Hispanic World
- > Play: La Casa de Bernarda Alba by Federico García Lorca
- > Film: Volver by Pedro Almodóvar
- > An Individual Research Project
- > Grammar

Why choose this course?

- > Dedicated facilities
- > Opportunity to immerse yourself in another culture
- > Facilitating subject.
- > Transferable skills for employability

Opportunity to IMMERSE
yourself in another culture

Where might it lead?

Spanish can lead to a wide range of opportunities at university and in employment, both in this country and abroad, eventually leading to study or work in a Spanish-speaking country. The highly respected ability to use multiple languages is beneficial for any route you take after College.

Entry requirements:

- > GCSEs to include a minimum Grade 5 in Spanish
- > Minimum average GCSE score of 4

More course information is available on our website

www.barton-peveril.ac.uk