

Barton Peveril College Update | 20th November 2020

Covid-19 cases at College

In the week 16th - 20th November we have been made aware of three separate cases where students have tested positive for the virus. As a result of the three cases not being in College, no other students had to self-isolate.

UCAS Internal Deadline 23rd November 2020

If you are a parent of a second year student, please encourage them to complete their UCAS application this weekend. However, if they need additional support they can make an appointment to see a member of the Careers team. Given the global picture, we are really encouraging students to make a UCAS application, even if it is Plan B or even C.

Pearson National Teaching Awards

Barton Peveril Subject Leader for Learning Support, Laura Stephens, is in the running for a Gold Pearson National Teaching Award.

The winners of each category will be announced on BBC's The One Show every evening next week. Tune in to support Laura, who has been nominated in the Digital Innovator of the Year category.

Jazz and Soul Night

Popular Music and Jazz Studies students performed in their first ever live streamed event, on Thursday 19th November 2020!

Reminder: Inset Day: Thursday 26th November

On this day, all students will be working from home, unless it has been pre-organised with the teacher, tutor or SPA.

What study skills do students need to be a success at college?

In this short video Rachel Sansom, Director of Teacher Training and Development and Teacher of Psychology, explains the work we have been doing with our first year students and how as parents and guardians you can help reinforce these messages.

Digital Q-XTRA

Despite Covid-19, Barton Peveril still really believes that learning beyond the curriculum is incredibly important. This is why there are over a hundred digital enrichment programmes to choose from and they range from practical employability skills to online courses related to subjects. Students just need to click on the Digital Q-XTRA quick link on the Barton Peveril home page. Completing online courses is a CV builder and will enhance any application form.
